Student Senate

Soledad High School Student Senate met on Thursday April 14th to prepare for our WASC Visit. Students at SHS who are in student senate represent the entire student body. Each seventh period classroom sends two class representatives to the meeting each week. The student senate meets with the principal, Ms. Austin to discuss important student matters, student learning outcomes, school culture, and the mission and vision of Soledad High School. Students from student senate discussed about the following: during the 2015-2016 school year.
